When It's Time to Apply, We Help You Put Your Best Foot Forward!

After you've found those University of You colleges, crushed your junior year and conquered the ACT, it's time to turn your attention to college applications and essays.

You might need Essays + Applications help if:

- » Your student rejects your help because “you’re just my mom/dad”
- » Important projects gather dust until deadlines loom, making for shoddy work and a crabby student
- » Your student falls on one end of the spectrum between “I got this, it’s no big deal” and “OMG I have no idea what to write!”
- » You want to be 100% confident that a critical component of the application gets the attention and professional expertise it deserves
- » All of the above

How do we nail the essays and not mess up the applications?

1. Understand the critical role essays play in your student’s applications - especially if your student is applying “test optional”
2. Don’t wait for assistance from that dear aunt/uncle/neighbor/coworker who has graciously offered to help but who might be a bit busy or out of touch with the process
3. Partner with professionals who know what colleges look for, what to avoid, and who may already have a strong working relationship with your student (and who work full-time during summer)

“Stephanie’s one-on-one coaching sessions helped relieve stress, providing professional insight into what colleges are looking for – and streamlining, organizing, and helping to polish my daughter’s essays. Thanks to Stephanie my daughter not only got into her dream school but was directly admitted into the Wisconsin School of Business.”

 Strong scores may boost chances for admission and scholarships at test optional colleges.
